Buckwalter, Hausefluck Hammer Hills At Annapolis

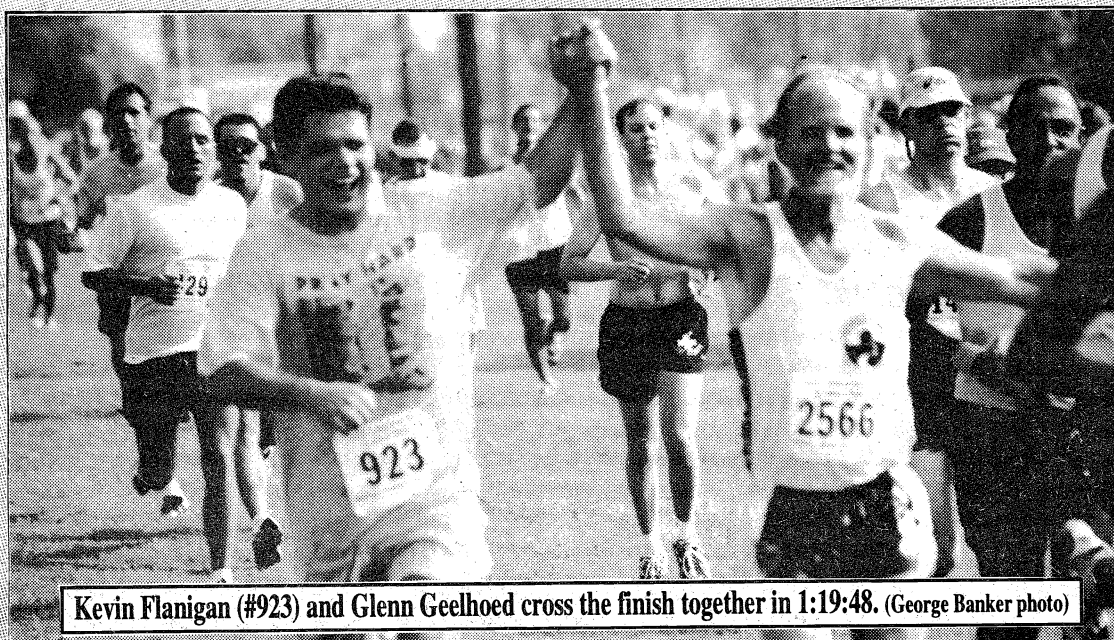

BY GEORGE BANKER

ANNAPOLIS, MD—You may not have met a course that you could not handle, but there is a course that can handle you. It was an encounter of the worst kind: heat, hills, and humidity. There was no prize money but there was plenty of competition for the 4,000 registered runners. The hills came alive at Maryland's premier ten-mile road race, the 24th Annapolis Ten Mile Run (August 29, 1999). The event served as the Maryland State RRCA 10-Mile Championship. The race started and finished at the Navy-Marine Corps Stadium with a tour through the hills of the surrounding neighborhoods. The high point of the race was the 80-foot bridge across the Severn River (at miles 5 and 8 1/2).

The weather affected the performance of the runners but not their spirits. They have been steadily increasing over the years and the course is one of the main attractions along with the organization by the Annapolis Striders. The men's record was set in 1980 by Terry Baker of Hagerstown, MD, at 48:09. Eleanor Simonsick of Baltimore, MD, set the women's record in 1982 at 56:12.

The returning two-time consecutive-year winner (1997-53:13, 1998-53:13), Hausefluck of Silver Spring, MD, was looking for win number three. There have been only three men who have won the event three times (Gary Siriano, 1982-84; Gerry Clapper, '88,'93,'94; Doug Mock, '91, '92, '95. Anthony Basile of Columbia, MD, was the defending Masters winner ('98-55:42). Rose Malloy of Annapolis was defending her title for the females. Malloy has won the title five times and was the overall female winner in 1990 (1:00:40) and holds the Masters record set in 1991 (1:00:36). Basile had to face James Pryde of Churchville, MD, the '94 (53:48) winner and Masters record holder, and '95 winner (54:33).

The race got off to a fast start. Hausefluck and Brian Daugherty of Annapolis took the lead before the first quarter mile, leaving the stadium with Todd Martin of Arlington, VA, and Gary O'Donnell, also of Arlington, (he eventually dropped out) following twenty-five yards back. The leaders had passed the first mile before the last person had reached the start line. Hausefluck and Daugherty reached the first mile in five minutes.

Along Rowe Boulevard, before the second mile, Pryde was pushing the pace with Basile trailing. Connie Buckwalter of Lancaster, PA, was the leading female, doing about a 5:44 pace, followed by Rosalind (Taylor) Sheppard of Crofton and Patty Fulton of Silver Spring, MD. Buckwalter was second in 1994 (1:01:05) and Fulton was 12th in 1993 (1:06:17).

Hausefluck and Daugherty had slowed to a 5:11 pace. The two were controlling the race at will. The race progressed towards the City Dock with a two-mile segment through the Naval Academy. This was the easy section. It was flat.

Because of a combination of the heat and hills, the pace set by Hausefluck and Daugherty had slowed to 5:31; total time at mile five was 26:21. The two raced up to the crest of the bridge with Hausefluck having a slight edge.

Buckwalter was not buckling under the heat. She maintained control over the pace. Going into the fourth mile, Sheppard had dropped out with a knee injury. Fulton quickly assumed the number-two place.

Once over the bridge the runners were taken over a two-mile stretch of sharp hills, which were close and provided little time to recover until mile seven. The neighbors provided sprinklers to cool the runners down.

Going into the seventh mile (37:27, mile split of 5:42) Hausefluck began to push but each move was covered by Daugherty. Todd Martin was trailing in a distant third, but was not able to bridge the gap.

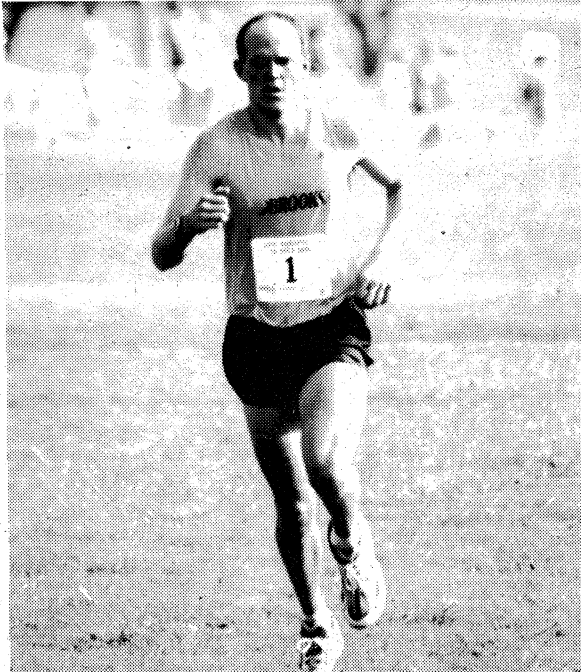

By mile nine, 48:37, Hausefluck proved to be the stronger runner as Daugherty was held off. Hausefluck captured a three-peat with a winning time of 53:58, the slowest winning time since 1990. Daugherty took second with 54:20 and Martin was third with 54:29.

24th Annual Annapolis 10-Mile Run ----- August 29, 1999

"Mentally I felt good through the Naval Academy. It was a benefit to know that I was a better uphill runner. I thought on the way back across the bridge that I had a big lead. We were working together and going at a decent clip," said Hausenfluck.

"I had a feeling that the hills were going to be my friend. Brian had better leg turnover on the flats. You go through a lot of phases in ten miles. Winning was a big motivator. This is a big regional race with big crowd support. I have to come back next year in '52' shape," added Hausenfluck.

"We went out pretty fast at 5:10 and we slowed to 5:20 pace and then down to 5:30. It was hot and humid. This was my first time running here, and I expected the hills. They were tough. There was a ten-second gap going out. I was pleased to finish. I am training for the Chicago Marathon," said Martin.

Pryde was holding the Masters lead until mile seven. Basile was within striking distance and a move was made near the bridge on the return as Basile overhauled Pryde to take the lead. Basile captured first with 58:46 (11th place) and Pryde was third with 59:47 (16th place).

Connie Buckwalter won the long-awaited prize of first place with 1:01:14. Patty Fulton took second with 1:01:23. Jennifer (Flint) Janis of Malvern, PA, was third with 1:03:26. In 1997, Janis was fourth with 1:02:40 and last year, second with 1:03:44.

"I didn't know that [Patty] was there. I heard people calling out 'Patty' and I knew it was going to be tough. I was trying to maintain my composure through the hills," said Buckwalter.

"At mile five I was thinking that I would like to drop out. I knew that I had to be mentally tough. I am happy that I stuck with it. This is a high-quality race. It's nice to come back and run and win it," said Buckwalter.

"I caught Connie going over the bridge. She pulled away in the neighborhoods. I was trying to run my own race. I could not get caught up in someone's else race. At mile five I was 29:48 and I felt strong at that point," said Fulton.

Rose Malloy, age 51, went unchallenged to add another Masters win with 1:08:28 (12th place). Marge Rosasco of Arnold was second with 1:11:25 (24th place), and Carla Pastore of Severna Park was third with 1:11:49.

"It was a struggle this year. I just kept going. I enjoy running the hills and coming back over the bridge there was a nice breeze. I was trying to keep it under 70 minutes," said Malloy.

Malloy was the winner of the Pat O'Brien Memorial Award (started in 1992 to honor the long-standing Annapolis Striders member) which goes to the first female Ann Arundel County finisher. This was Malloy's third time receiving the award.

"I still see her in my mind. She is still around. This award is more special than the overall Masters award," said Malloy.

Dustin Sweeney, age 16, of Berryville, VA, a student at Clarke County School, took first in the age group 19-and-under with 1:01:06 (25th place). "This was my first ten-mile race. The first five were a tease. The last five had rolling hills. I went out at a comfortable pace through five miles. The hills hit me so hard. They were continuous. At mile seven I lost focus. The last mile I was struggling," said Sweeney.

Karen Erb, age 48, was first in the age group 45-49 with 1:15:45 (46th place). Hideko Pirie, age 54, of Fairfax, VA, was second in the 50-54 age group with 1:15:00 (38th place). Deborah Gebhardt, Adelphi, was third with 1:19:30 (81st place).
